Interpretation

Airport Facility Charge/ Passenger Facility Charge	A fee to fund Airport Operations and Capital Improvements or rehabilitation of existing infrastructure and equipment replacement.
Aircraft in distress	An aircraft that is, or any person on board of which is, threatened by serious or imminent danger and requires immediate assistance.
Airport Manager	An individual employed by the airport to manage the airport facilities and employees and to carry out the directives of the Airport Board.
All-cargo aircraft	A commercial aircraft operated for the purpose of moving cargo only.
Combi Aircraft	A commercial aircraft that is capable of carrying simultaneously a combination of aircraft unit load devices (ULD) and passengers on the main deck and that is not operated in an all-passenger configuration.
Domestic Flight	A flight between points in Canada
International Flight	A flight between a point in Canada and a point outside Canada.
Landing	a) in respect of a fixed-wing aircraft, means the touching of the ground by the aircraft on arrival at an airport, and, b) in respect of a helicopter, means the touching of the ground by the helicopter on arrival at an airport or the arrival of the helicopter at an airport for the purpose of loading or unloading without touching the ground.
Touch and Go Landing	touch-and-go landing or circuit for fixed wing aircraft involves landing on a runway and taking off again without coming to a full stop or for rotary type aircraft touching down at the airport and taking off without coming to a full stop. Usually the pilot then circles the airport in a defined pattern known as a circuit and repeats the maneuver. This allows many landings in a short time for training or maintenance testing purposes.
Payload	The revenue-producing or useful load that an aircraft can carry.
Private Aircraft	A civil aircraft other than an aircraft registered as Commercial, Corporate or State.

Seating Capacity	The number of passenger seats the aircraft is certified for or confirmed by the operator if different from certification.
State Aircraft	An aircraft, other than a commercial aircraft, owned and operated by the government of any country or the government of a colony, dependency, province, state, territory or municipality of any country.
Terminal Building	A building owned and operated by the North Bay Jack Garland Airport used for the purpose of the processing of passengers or aircrew through the building for the purpose of embarking or disembarking.
Piston Engine Aircraft	An aircraft that derives most of its propulsive power from a piston engine and burns aviation gas or similar type products.
Jet Aircraft	An aircraft that derives its propulsive power from the thrust of high-velocity gases developed by a turbojet or turbofan engine.
Turboprop Aircraft	An aircraft that derives most of its propulsive power from the thrust developed by a turbojet engine having a turbine-driven propeller.
Other Type	The basic design, including any derivatives thereof, of an aircraft for which a type of approval has been granted under the Air Regulations, or for which a United States Federal Aviation Administration type certificate has been accepted by the Minister, for the purposes of issuing a certificate or airworthiness pursuant to section 211 of the Air Regulations.
Unit Load Device (ULD)	Air cargo pallets and containers designed to interlock with aircraft tie-down restraint systems both in the lower deck and the main cabin floor of the aircraft.
Weight	The maximum permissible take-off weight specified in the aircraft's certificate of airworthiness or in a document referred to in that certificate.

Calculation of Charges

- 1) Registered owners and operators of aircraft shall provide such information on the weight, seating capacity, and identification of each aircraft operated at the airport to the officer in charge of that airport as is required for calculation of charges.
- 2) Where some of the information specified in subsection (1) is not provided for an aircraft, the calculation of charges shall be based on the maximum permissible take-off weight or the maximum seating capacity for the type of aircraft in question, as appropriate.
- 3) All fees and charges will be rounded off to the nearest 5 cents.
- 4) The primary source of information for billing is traffic sheets provided by NavCanada.

Payment of Charges
